

Mail a friend Print this article

Home > Exhibition News > Cultour fair interests worldwide

Cultour fair interests worldwide

Thursday, April 21, 2011

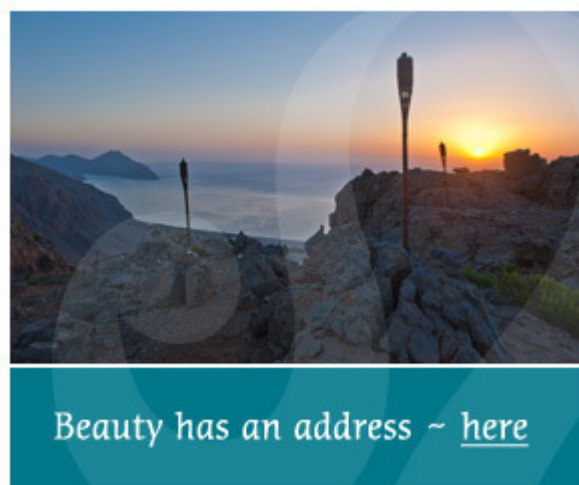

CULTOUR, Global Heritage & Cultural Travel Exhibition, is attracting tour operators and travel agencies from all over the world. Up to date tour operators from 34 countries have requested registration: Argentina, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Chile, China, Czech Republic, Denmark, France, Germany, Guatemala, Hungary, India, Israel, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherlands, Norway, Paraguay, Poland, Portugal, Rumania, Russia, South Africa, Spain, Switzerland, Thailand, UK, United Arab Emirates, USA and Venezuela.

The same thing is happening with the travel and tourism suppliers – public and private – that wish to participate as exhibitors, which are, until now, from 50 countries: Argentina, Armenia, Austria, Bangladesh, Bolivia, Brazil, Bulgaria, Bhutan, Cambodia, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Croatia, Ecuador, Egypt, El Salvador, Spain, Ethiopia,

France, Georgia, Germany, Greece, Guatemala, Honduras, India, Indonesia, Iran, Israel, Italy, Kenya, Laos, Malta, Mauritania, Mexico, Mozambique, Nepal, Nicaragua, Nigeria, Panama, Peru, Poland, Romania, Russia, South Africa, UK, Ukraine, United Arab Emirates, Uruguay, USA and Venezuela.

CULTOUR is open only for professionals and it is run by a minimum of 20 individual meetings between exhibitors and buyers.

The third edition of CULTOUR is taking place in Quito, Ecuador, from June 22nd to 24th this year and it is sponsored by Ecuador's Ministry of Tourism and the City of Quito, as Quito's cultural capital of the Americas 2011.

Source : Ecuador's Ministry of Tourism

Share

© etbMICE 2010 | Add to Google toolbar | Advertise with us | Contact

Us

Website designed by Agents Support Systems